Christian Aid Week:

Recently it was Christian Aid Week and door to door collections were made in many roads in and around Astwood Bank. If, however, you did not have a collector call and would like to make a donation, please take an envelope from the back of church. Either place the donation in the wall safe near the door, or return it to church next week. Perhaps you might like to take an envelope for a friend?

Home visits: Anyone who wishes to have a home visit or receive home communion should contact Irene Hamilton on 01527 894179

We pray for those who are sick at this time -

Mick Bolt, Jean Green, Philippa Kreuser, Alex, Karen & Dale Roberts, Colin & Alison Daines, Marion Lee, Edna Weale, Jean Lees, Duncan Glover, Kate Vicos, Joyce Thomas and Margaret Emms, together with their families.

We continue to pray for Sheila Lawes, Jacqueline and Sarah following the funeral of Mike last Thursday.

We also pray for the souls of all those tragically killed in Manchester last week and also for those injured and traumatised by the event, together with their families and friends. The church will remain open today between 10 am and 7pm for those who would like to pray for the victims or to light a candle in their memory.

Dates for the diary: Strawberry Tea

On Sunday 25th June from 3 - 5. 30 pm, come along – with your family and friends - to a Strawberry Tea in the church hall. There will be more details nearer the time but Irene is hoping lots of people will donate, scones, cakes and raffle prizes. Please let Irene know if you are able to do so. Tickets priced £3.50 for adults and £2.00 for children will soon be available from Irene and Ann Heath.

Art Club: The next meeting will be at 3.30 - 5pm on June 11th in the hall

Election Hustings: Churches Together in Redditch (CTiR) is hosting a hustings to hear all the parliamentary candidates at the Oasis Christian Centre, (Junction of Plymouth Road and Bromsgrove Road) at 7.30pm on Thursday 1st June.

Thy Kingdom Come: is a prayer initiative between May 24th and Sunday June 4th encouraging us to pray for people to know Jesus, culminating with the celebration of Pentacost. Please see Meg Spalding for details of local events
