Christmas Fayre Sat 14th November.

We would like to thank everyone who supported this event which proved to be very successful despite the wet weather. Special thanks to all the stallholders and members of our congregation who gave so generously in prizes and items such as cakes and preserves. The overall profit will be in excess of £500-00 and the exact figure will be published next week.

Ann has a quantity of chutneys and preserves which she will have available in Church during the next two Sundays, in case you were unable to get along to the fayre last week.

Decorating the Church for Christmas.
