WELCOME

January 7th 2018
EPIPHANY

A warm welcome to our services today especially if this is your first visit to The Bridge.

"Jesus commanded us to preach to the people and testify that he is the one whom God appointed as judge of the living and the dead.. All the prophets testify about him that every one who believes in him receives forgiveness of sins through his name."

ACTS 10 vv42,43

"The services at 10.30am today at The Bridge (both cafe and traditional) will be 30 minutes in length. The two congregations will then come together in the hall over coffee to discuss the results of the recent questionnaires that we filled in over the summer.

This is a chance for us as a the whole church to look and reflect on the themes that emerged from the questionnaire process. There are a lot of positives to emerge and some challenges as well."

Glenn Reading

CHURCH WITHOUT WALLS

A group of interested folk are meeting soon to share ideas for the Church Without Walls mission project which is being planned for April 2018. We want this to involve as many people as possible and so, if you have a passion for mission, or if you believe in reaching out into the community, or if you have brilliant ideas, or if your gift is enthusiasm and encouragement then please come along at 7pm on Wednesday 10th January (room to be announced) and be part of this exciting work. Rev Ruth Wilson

Required Church Council members

1 Anglican and 5 Methodist vacancies on the church council. If you are prepared to serve on the council please speak to Glen, Ruth, Brian, Julian, Matthew or Doreen

Please give any items for inclusion in this weekly news-sheet by Wednesday of each week, to Matthew Bailey or Roger Ling or send them via email to: bailey_matt@btinternet.com and roger.j.ling@virginmedia.com

TIME FOR PRAYER

An informal prayer meeting will be held on Tuesday 9th January at 10.30am at 104 Malvern Road, the home of Pam Mills. Everyone is welcome to come to this gathering to pray for the work of the church and other needs.

RAGS TO RICHES !!

Don't forget that as part of our Project fundraising we are collecting 'Rags' to turn into cash. We can accept any old clothes, towels, bed linen or any material. We can also sell shoes and handbags. Please bring to the Memorial Hall on any Thursday or Friday morning or ring Maureen Brown on 542281 to arrange collection.

Over £1500 has been raised so far from the collection of rags.

Please keep them coming!

St George's school story telling Open The Book team is recruiting new members. Anyone with a spare hour to go into school and help present Bible stories, please speak with Judith Grubb, tel. 457789.

The annual international Hillsong Colour Conference for women only is taking place next year from Thursday 19th April to Saturday 21st April. It is an amazing, inspirational rock concert interspersed with internationally known Christian speakers. Further details from Judith Grubb, tel. 457789.
