A Note on Face Coverings.

As the Covid rate of infection is increasing at present we would ask you to continue wearing a face covering during worship, we do monitor this closely and as soon as we can safely remove face coverings we will. Thank you

When the song of the angels is stilled,
When the star in the sky is gone,
When the kings and the princes are home,
When the shepherds are back with their flocks,
The work of Christmas begins:
To find the lost,
To heal the broken,
To feed the hungry,
To release the prisoner,
To rebuild the nations,
To bring peace among people,
To make music in the heart.
Amen.

ALL WELCOME

As you read this many of us will be enjoying Christmas and New Year festivities, it is good to celebrate and take a rest of our usual pattern of work and responsibilities and we may be giving some thought to the year ahead. Above you will see two events which may be of interest to you.

As we enter a new year I hope and pray we can do so with a sense of optimism and opportunity, I believe God is leading us into a new and exciting chapter in the life and worship of our churches albeit it one of challenge.

It may feel that optimism is hard to find as we continue to live with the challenge of Covid and its different variants yet let us recall the challenge of Christ and his Gospel, to announce the good news and bring hope and light.

There is a lot that lies before us in 2022 as a group of four churches and the wider Redditch Area. There will time to deepen our relationships with each other as communities of faith and times to journey with one another in our Christian pilgrimage.

If we needed a creed or a prayer for the year ahead, I hope the words of Harold Thurman opposite will inspire.

Blessed is the influence of one true, loving human soul on another.

George Eliot
